PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I am delighted to know that Dhule charitable society's A.R.A College of pharmacy is bringing out the e-bulletin has been issued yearly. This will act as a source of information and will update the students, staff as well as the parents on the advances in the area of pharmacy and forthcoming events not only at the institutional, but also at the national level. I take this opportunity to address the parents, who have chosen our institution to educate their wards. I am sure my committed faculty and staff will strive hard to transcend you all into prospective young pharmacists with globally compatible skills and knowledge. Our focus is to achieve this commitment to you by bringing in the philosophy that industry and education must co-exist while knowledge and experience will continuously and dynamically keep the students performing at the peak level, present and in the future.

The institute has adopted the best features of the education to equip you with attributes to succeed in fiercely competitive business world with grace and without compromising with universal values. I would like to congratulate the college of pharmacy for this initiative taken by it, in ensuring the over-all

Development of the students and the others associated with it. This e-bulletin will act as a reliable source of information and ideas of the current happenings in the college and industry. I am certain that this will keep the students well-informed of the advances and challenges they would soon face. Wishing you all the best in every endeavor to make "ara pharma" a success in the years to come.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

It brings me great joy to introduce the inaugural edition of our own electronic bulletin, "ARA Pharma." I believe that this initiative will broaden students' horizons of knowledge and creativity. The newsletter aims to disseminate information and showcase advancements and enhancements in the field of pharmacy. "Proud to be Pharmacist" is not just a slogan for us; it is our core belief and primary agenda. It serves as both inspiration and guiding principle in our work. As an institution, we are dedicated to ensuring that society acknowledges and appreciates the significance and necessity of this noble profession in societal development.

Dr. Rajendra.D. Wagh,

Principal

DCS's A.R.A. COP Nagaon Dhule

Moreover, it is essential to instill in students a sense of responsibility and integrity as pharmacists. Dhule Charitable Society's A.R.A. College of Pharmacy has established itself as a prominent institution within the North Maharashtra University, Jalgaon. We are committed to meeting both academic requirements and extracurricular activities, maintaining a perfect balance between the two sectors. This newsletter is introduced with the sole aim of fulfilling this objective. I extend my best wishes to the editorial board, faculty members, and students for this new venture. Congratulations to all for their dedicated efforts in bringing forth this newsletter.

CHIEF EDITOR

I'm pleased to observe that the editorial committee is releasing the DCS's A.R.A COP e-bulletin biannually, catering to its audience. Our esteemed President, Hon'ble Shri. Aashish Ajmera, has established outstanding infrastructure and fostered an optimistic mindset to adapt to the evolving landscape of pharmacy education. The e-bulletin will showcase the institute's significant achievements, along with recognition received by faculty and students, providing a snapshot of each semester's highlights. This issue of the periodical will offer an overview of the significant activities arranged by the college, to be released biannually. We extend our gratitude to our principal and management for their support and direction in shaping this publication.
